

“A CALL TO ARMS”
Ephesians 6:10-24

What genre of film would you pick to tell your life story? Comedy romance? Perhaps suspense or drama? How about action-adventure? Would you ever consider a battlefield for your backdrop? Maybe you should.

I. A CALL TO ARMS 10-12

1. Accept the _____ of an Enemy.
2. Acknowledge the _____ of the Enemy.
3. Anticipate the _____ of the Enemy.

II. A CALL FOR ARMOR 13-17

1. For _____ to Stand
 2. For _____ to Stand
- Belt - _____
- Breastplate - _____
- Shoes - _____
- Shield - _____
- Helmet - _____
- Sword - _____

III. A CALL FOR ASSISTANCE 18-20

1. Pray That We Will _____
2. Pray That We Will _____

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What image comes to mind when you picture your life as a Christian? Do you see yourself as a soldier in battle? See II Timothy 2:1-4
2. What are some of the similarities and differences between combat soldiers and Christians? Who is the real enemy of believers (Ephesians 6:11-12)? What strategies does he employ against you?
3. Examine the spiritual weapons we have at our disposal. Why are they primarily defensive? Which of the weapons are you taking advantage of?
4. What sacrifices are you making for the spiritual “war effort”? What is one way you could make a difference this week?